

AAnswers

- ① a to explain what early culture shock feels like
- ② after two months
- ③ any two from: she didn't think her English was good enough / she wished there was German bread / the public transport system was different

BAnswers

- ① She says she had a much wider vocabulary and she thought/dreamt exclusively in English.
- ② any three from: she had learned what to expect / she had adapted her own behaviour / she had learned to appreciate new ways of thinking / she appreciated new attitudes / her English had improved
- ③ She had developed a routine and made a lot of new friends.

④

| Name of stage | Feeling |
|------------------------------|--|
| Early honeymoon phase | Felt really happy / 'over the moon' |
| Later honeymoon phase | Felt frustrated |
| Adjustment phase | Appreciated new ways of doing things |
| Mastery phase | Had same attitudes as an Australian |

- ⑤ Accept that the foreign culture will not change.

C

Note: Accept either answer (negative or positive) as long as it is supported with evidence.

Example answer: On the whole her experience was a positive one – she learned a lot about herself, learned to adjust and adapt her behaviour and this helped her to fit in. Her English also improved a lot.